PRIVACY STATEMENT

This statement is provided to you by the School and specifically itemises the reason for collecting information about students and their families and the way in which that information is used by the School.

1. The School collects personal information, including sensitive information, about students and their parents/guardians before and during the course of their enrolment at the School. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling for your child.
2. Some of the information collected is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care.
3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. These include public health and child protection laws.
4. Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We may ask you to provide medical reports from time to time.
5. The School from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes disclosure to other schools, government departments, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers and counsellors.
6. If the information referred to above is not obtained by the School, we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your child.
7. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to parents or guardians. On occasions, information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and other news is published in School newsletters, magazines and on our website. Student photos are often included.
8. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their child/children by contacting the School. Students may also seek access to personal information about themselves; however, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include instances where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the students, or where students have provided information in confidence.
9. The School from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. Your personal information will not be disclosed to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
10. Your contact details may be included in a class list and School Directory. In general, access to this is limited to School staff.
11. If you provide the School with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, you are encouraged to inform them that:
  - you are disclosing that information to the School and the reason for doing so;
  - they can access the information if they wish;
  - the School does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
